POLICEMAN HAD HARD ROW TO HOE

Special Officer Jackson Took Two Offenders To Prison.

Last night about 7 o'clock while on Beretania street, Special Policeman Jackson was passed by a Japanese on a horse, riding furiously. Jackson pursued him on his wheel and after a long, hard ride brought the offender to bay.

While returning to town with his charge, a horse and cart, driven without a light by Manuel Jesus, was encountered, and Jackson determined to kill two birds with one stone; took the driver in charge. He packed the Japanese in the wagon with Jesus, hitched the saddle-horn of the former to the tail of the cart, and, mounting his wheel, took the entire outfit in tow.

All went well until the lane on King street leading to Kewalo was reached, when the officer began to find his hands full in a way he had little anticipated. The Portuguese suddenly struck the wheel, and attempted to make a bolt for liberty. It was only the Jap's loyalty and Jackson's nerve that won the way to the station house at all.

As it was, the officer was forced to abandon his wheel, and had to personally conduct the tour from the box seat of the wagon.

At the station the Jap was charged with needless riding, while Jesus will have to answer the double charge of driving without a light and resisting arrest.

GRISWOLD CONCERT WAS A SUCCESS

Splendid Program Enjoyed by a Small but Appreciative Audience.

Owing to continued bad weather the audience at Miss Della Griswold's concert last night was only fair, but that it was appreciative of an excellent program perfectly rendered was demonstrated by the hearty applause as the numbers were given.

Especially pretty was De Koven's "Cradle Song," with which Miss Griswold opened her program, assisted in piano accompaniment by Miss Gertrude Brown. This was followed by Schumann's "Holland air," "Because," and Chadwick's "Dear Love, When in Thine Arms" by Miss Griswold. A beautiful floral tribute was received by Miss Griswold at the conclusion of the "Cradle Song."

Mr. H. Mott-Smith then exquisitely rendered Godard's "Berceuse de Jocelyn" and Schutt's valse "Bluette."

Mr. Newton Prouty, who was in excellent voice, sang the beautiful Toreador Song from Bizet's "Carmen." The popular number was received with continued applause, and Mr. Prouty responded in encore with Arthur Foote's beautiful plaintive Scotch ballad, "I'm Waring Awa, Jean."

Mr. Mott-Smith's cello obligato, "Gently Close My Weary Eyelids" (Miersch) followed, and Miss Griswold followed with the hush song "Baloo, My Dear" (Oliphant) and Dessner's pretty bolero, "Ouvrez."

This was followed by a rare musical treat. Miss Griswold, Mrs. Allen White, Mr. Prouty and Mr. Walter Billingham sang in quartette the famous "Bella Figlia" from Verdi's "Rigoletto." This, one of the most difficult selections from grand opera, was perfectly given with ease and charming accord.

The program concluded by Miss Griswold in a sweet rendition of Csek's "Wienlied" and Arditi's "L'Arditi."

Miss Gertrude Brown, who so profitably acted as accompanist, is a protégé of Miss Griswold's, and is only 17 years of age. Miss Griswold says she is proud of her discovery, and predicts a brilliant future for her.

THE ANGLE LAMP

THE LIGHT THAT NEVER FAILS.

It seems almost incredible that any lamp could be good enough to take the place of electricity on even terms, yet such is the case with the ANGLE LAMP. All over the the island people are throwing away their old lamps and replacing them with this lamp, not merely because it costs about one-tenth as much to maintain (cost is no object to some people), but, besides being infinitely cheaper, it is more brilliant and more reliable in the bargain. It is a revelation to every one who uses it, and simply demonstrates that the old-fashioned lamp was a barbarous contrivance. THE ANGLE LAMP never smokes, smells or gives any trouble, is lighted and extinguished as easily as gas, and is the ideal light from every standpoint. We carry these lamps from $1.80 up.
